

As an amateur operator who regularly uses the 160m band for long-distance communications, I support the subject petition to limit wideband modes (SSB, AM and SSTV) to 1.843-2.000 MHz. The petitioners are experienced and knowledgeable and reflect the views of the overwhelming majority of 160m DX operators and contesters.